Hi JJHP Jazz Fans!

DRUM ROLL and HERE WE GO! HOPE TO SEE YOU THERE!!!

This is your last chance to get tickets this year to see and hear some of the great traditional jazz musicians in the East, playing at the 5th fun and frolic Jeff and Joel's House Party from Friday October 10 to Sunday the 12th. Fifteen top trad jazz musicians will be mixing and matching their talents for 3 sessions of music with wonderful food being served on Saturday and Sunday. On Friday there is a special session featuring Dan Levinson and Molly Ryan with Jeff Barnhart, Vince Giordano and Bill Reynolds for an evening of old standards of the 20s and 30s, as well as traditional hot jazz numbers to swing.

The rhythm section this year will be headed up by Bill Reynolds and Tom Palinko.

Bill Reynolds

Bill is an extremely versatile and highly sought after jazz drummer. He is an alumnus of the Berkeley and the Navy Schools of Music, where he served on the staff as percussion teacher and drummer with the renowned Faculty Lab Band. Bill has played with many well known jazz bands including The New Black Eagles, Vince Giordano, The New Direction Jazz Ensemble, The Back Bay Ramblers and more.

Bill will be backing up Dan Levinson and Molly Ryan along with Vince Giordano and Jeff Barnhart on Friday night and will be with us for the weekend.

Tom Palinko

Tom has toured with entertainers such as Rodney Dangerfield and the Tommy Dorsey Orchestra. For a young guy he gets around. He regularly plays with The Heartbeat Dixieland Jazz Band and The Galvanized Jazz Band.

Tom Palinko has been with us since the very first House Party and he always puts on a good show. Here he is at House Party #3 setting a blistering tempo to a song oddly enough titled "sleep." He goes on to trade 4's with both Noel Kaletsky and Joe Midiri while Paul Midiri looks on with envy.

This is the second House Party that Bill Reynolds will be playing and we are really glad to have him. Here he is in playing Minor Drag during the Friday night session of House Party #4.
