These repeat performers at Jeff and Joel's House Party will be joined by the Paris Washboard and the "new" musicians at JJHP for a total of 15 over 3 sessions on Saturday and Sunday. You never know what will come next with Jeff Barnhart and Joel Schiavone - maybe some classical piano by Jeff played in jazz or a singalong with Joel. The food is exceptional and the music is like you've never heard before. Seats are limited and close to being sold out. This is one jazz weekend not to miss!

For reservations call Maureen at 203-208-1481 Check the website www.jeffandjoelshouseparty.com for information on seating, History and detailed profiles of the musicians.
